

The workshop was to plan for grant activities on antimicrobial stewardship and non-communicable diseases for the Newton Grant recipients at University of Strathclyde Glasgow UK.

Dr Opanga stayed on for a further two weeks in Glasgow, where she attended meetings with the NHS and the Farr Research Group; and participated in ward rounds at Queen Elizabeth hospital and several pharmacist led clinics